

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

Department of Risk Management/Insurance, Real Estate & Legal Studies

Real Estate Internal Scholarships

Bill Teel, Clara J. Milligan Teel, and Ann Teel Hatcher Endowed Scholarship:

Established to provide support for upper level (junior and senior) undergraduate students majoring in real estate and/or risk management with a demonstrated financial need. The scholarship selection criteria include academic success (minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA), community service, and outstanding moral character. First preference is given to students whose legal residence is within the Florida Panhandle; second preference is given to students who are legal residents of Florida.

Crossman & Company Endowed Scholarship

Established in 2006, this fund provides support for deserving undergraduate and graduate students in the College of Business with first preference given to those majoring in real estate. Selection criteria include academic merit, service activities and financial need.

Mark Edward Burgess Scholarship

Established by Bob and Marti Burgess in 2008 to support students who are Florida residents majoring in real estate in the College of Business. Selection criteria include academic merit, service activities and financial need.

Mark Hillis and Nan Casper Hillis Endowed Fund for Real Estate

First awarded in 2008, this endowment provides scholarship support for undergraduate and graduate students in the College of Business. Recipients shall be real estate majors and have demonstrated financial need as well as have maintained a minimum GPA of 3.0 or higher. Once a qualified applicant meeting the donor's stated eligibility criteria is identified, that student shall have priority for future scholarship awards.

Michael Baldwin Scholarship

Established by Michael Baldwin in 2009, this scholarship is awarded to real estate students pursuing a career in real estate appraisal. Additional selection criteria include academic merit, work experience, and responses to the questionnaire that accompanies the department's application.