

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

EVENING, PART TIME, ON CAMPUS

"Our evening MBA classes draw a cross-section of Tallahassee's industries, from startup enterprises to state government. Through collaborative case-study work, students gain a critical understanding of managerial tools – such as information systems – that can be used to increase an organization's productivity as well as contribute to its business processes and strategies. Since most students are already working full time, they find they don't have to wait until graduation to employ these new skills."

— Iris Junglas

Associate Professor of Management Information Systems
